To review a film in FilmFreeway, please visit FilmFreeway.com.

Click on login in the upper right corner. For your login, please type in:
   Email - screening@aafilmfest.org
    Password - 61AAFF!

You will be directed to a page that looks like this:

To find a film, type the title in the search box at the top of the page.
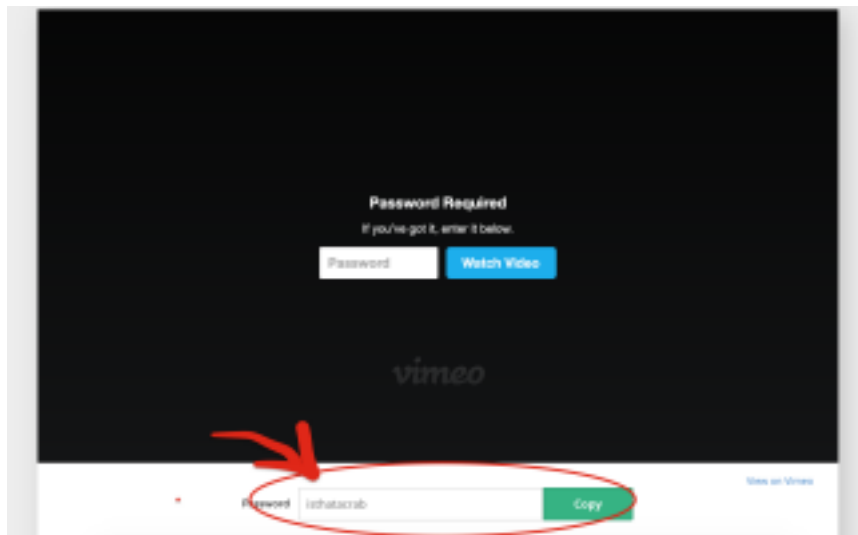

For example, if you wanted to view a film called Herman, then you would type that title into the search window. Click on the magnifying glass to the right of where you typed those words, and the film title will appear in the results list, like this:

Click on the blue hyperlinked title, such as (in the example above) Herman, on your results list.

You will be guided to a project window that looks like this:

Notice that the password is at the bottom of the screen. You may need to paste it in the window above to view the film.

If the film does not load or you need additional assistance, please contact us at screening@aafilmfest.org

Remember to record all your reviews in the InfoReady platform.
